

What is the pay period type?	What kind of salary/wages?	What is the time period?	Which form to use
Monthly	Regular	7/1/13 - 9/30/14	Funding Swap ePAR
		10/1/14 through the most recently distributed payroll	Retro Funding Swap-Post 10/1
		For the current pay period forward	Funding Swap ePAR
	Non-Regular	7/1/13 - 9/30/14	Retro Journal Entry - Complete this template and attach to a remedy ticket: http://www.unc.edu/finance/fd/gen_docs/request_retros_journal_entries.xlsx
		10/1 through the most recently distributed payroll	Retro Funding Swap-Post 10/1
Biweekly	Regular	7/1/13 - pay period ending 9/7/14	Funding Swap ePAR
		Pay period beginning 9/8/14 though the most recently distributed payroll	Retro Funding Swap-Post 10/1
		Current pay period forward	Funding Swap ePAR
	Non-Regular	7/1/13 - pay period ending 9/7/14	Retro Journal Entry - Complete this template and attach to a remedy ticket: http://www.unc.edu/finance/fd/gen_docs/request_retros_journal_entries.xlsx
		Pay period beginning 9/8/14 though the most recently distributed payroll	Retro Funding Swap-Post 10/1

Regular vs Non-Regular Salary/Wages

Non-Regular salary/wages for this case is defined as longevity, overtime, fringe benefits only, shift differential, lump sum payments, vacant positions, retro on a retro.